Spot of Tea

This project was about creating tea packaging for a non-existent Montreal company that imports Indian tea for the local market.

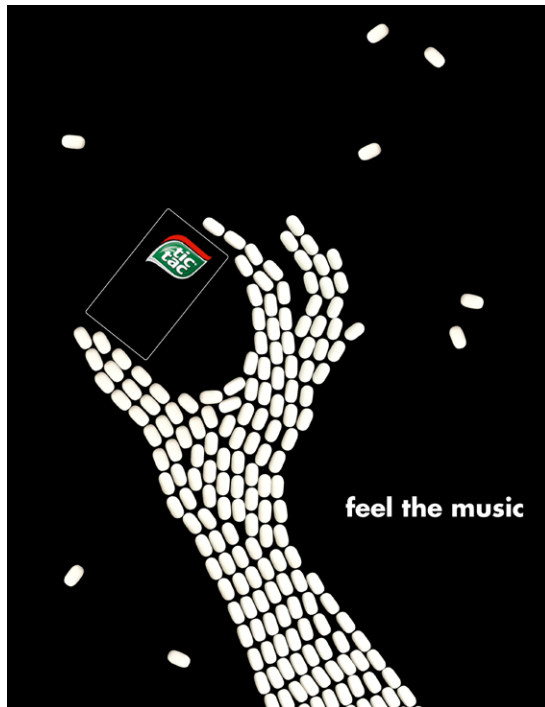

Louis Sullivan

This project was about creating packaging for a famous architect, that would contain his work in a book and CD format, which then would be sold in museums gift shops.

Tic Tac Pub

We had to create a promotional poster and a promotional ad in a magazine for an already existent product for food.

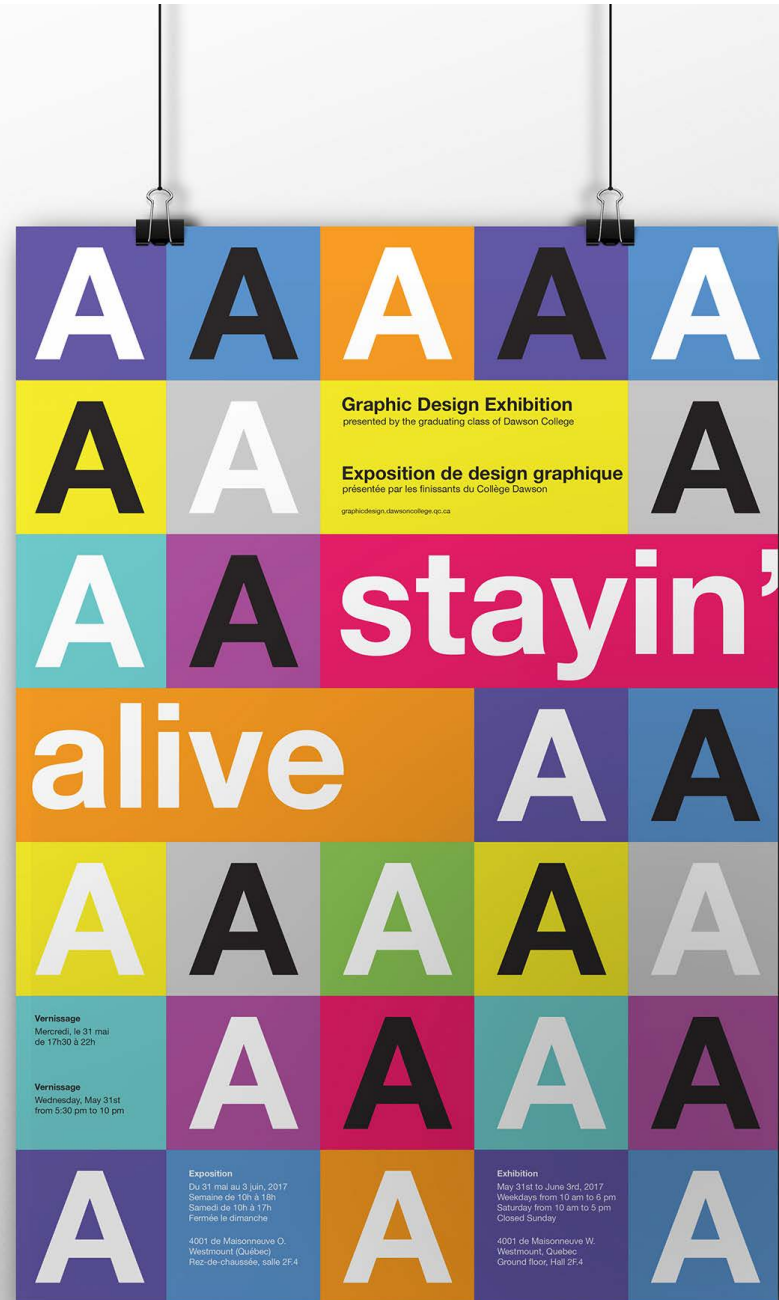

Exhibition Poster

My version of the exhibition poster for Graphic Design at Dawson College.

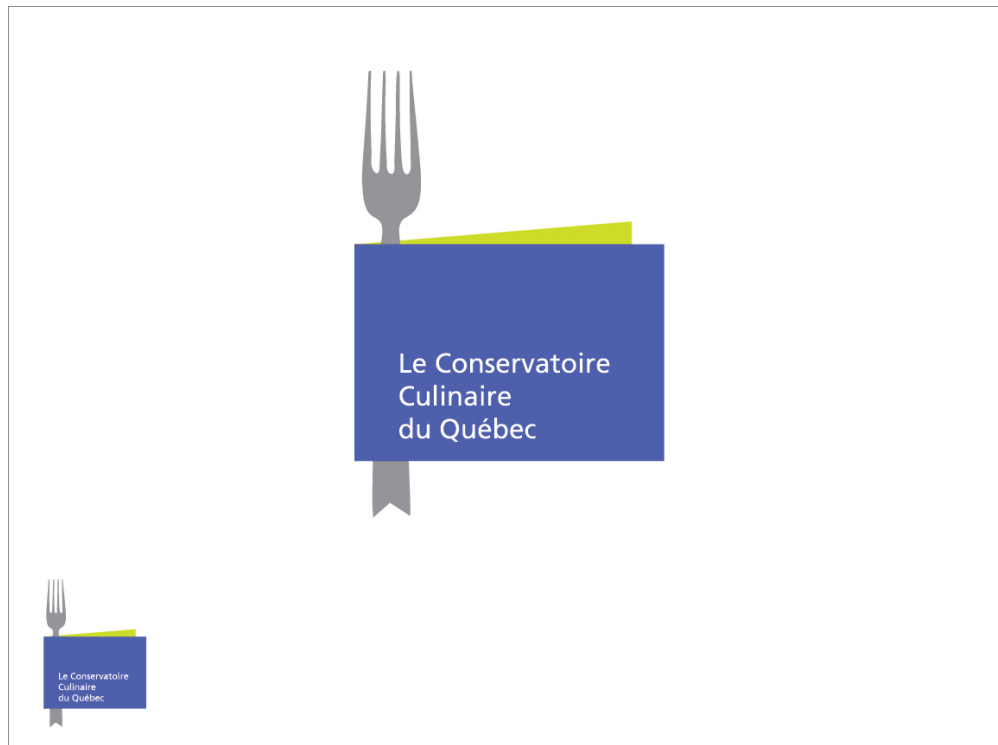

The goal of the project was to find a word or a set of words and create an exhibition poster based on them.

My poster is a typographical interpretation of the infamous song Stayin' Alive by Bee Gees.

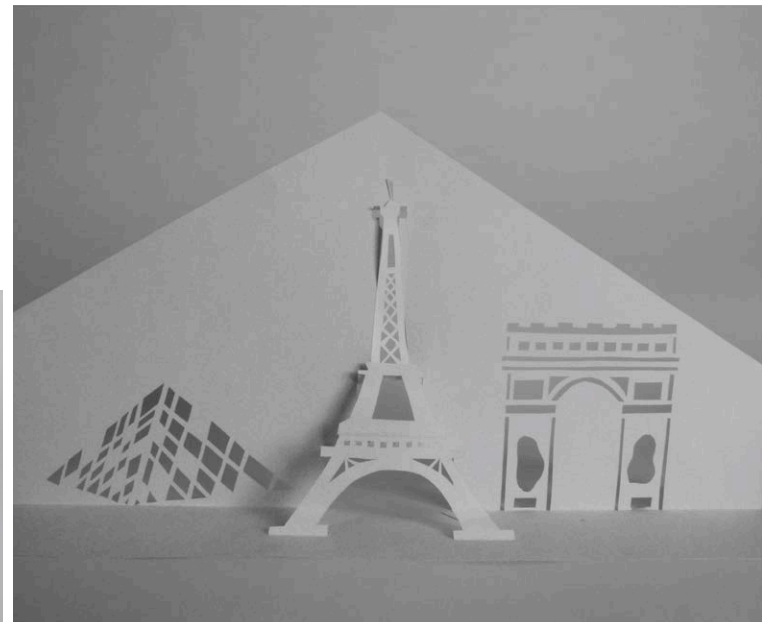

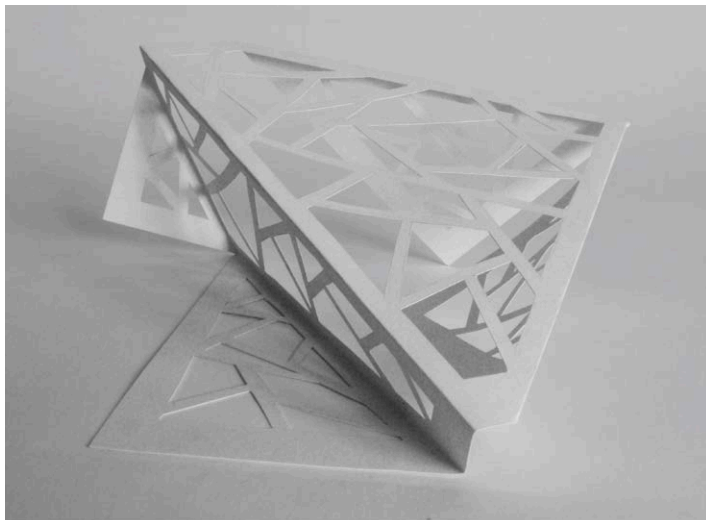

Le Conservatoire Culinaire du Québec

This logo was for the contest of Le
Conservatoire Culinaire du Québec.
It won 4th place - Teacher's Choice.

Paper Pop-Outs

With just one piece of paper and x-acto knives, I created a set of interesting interesting 3D figures.

Octopus and Oysters

Each element made with different media we had to do a book cover for with a title that started with with one letter.

Sonorama Rebranding

This project was to rebrand an existing company, Sonorama. To create a new logo, stationery and applications.
